The SunSail 41.0 has several features that make it the ideal vessel for any sailor. It features a full-length chine, twin rudders and a reverse bow that rises out of the water. At a total length of 12.35m, the deck construction boasts 30% weight savings compared to traditional decks, resulting in a boat that is balanced, responsive and rewarding to helm.

A rarity for a 40ft yacht, the SunSail 41.0 is a 9-berth boat, with a double bed towards the bow, two further doubles aft, and bench seating in the main cabin that converts into another double and a single bed. Although capable of sleeping 9, the yacht can be sailed or raced with a further crew member onboard to give a total crew size of 10.

The yacht benefits from a lower boom, which facilitates access to the sail and increases the sail area. Centralised winches, which can be controlled directly from the cockpit, also contribute to safety on board.

In addition, the SunSail 41.0 has a fully equipped kitchenette and ample storage space.

Each yacht is fully MCA coded and compliant with all RYA safety regulations.

Perfectly suited to racing and cruising alike, these yachts are designed to bring you a higher quality sailing experience without losing any of the excitement. Being part of a perfectly matched fleet of boats means that racing victory will all be down to the teamwork, skills, tactics and expertise of you and your crew.
